

SPARK COMMUNICATION WORKSHOP

Helping you help children communicate!

- SPARK was developed for Early Interventionists to provide them with the strategies and coaching framework for the early language development of children & to work with their parents for applying these strategies at home.
- The workshop will teach research-based responsive interaction strategies – drawn from Hanen's It Takes Two to Talk® program and guidebook – that are known to accelerate children's early language development.
- The participants will also learn how to coach parents to apply these strategies during everyday interactions with their child to make language learning a natural, ongoing process.

Venue: Gurgaon, India

Date: 24-25 November, 2018

Who all can attend?
